

Behavioral healthcare program

Top-quality workers compensation coverage

Liberty Mutual Insurance partners with Negley Associates to provide top-quality workers compensation coverage for behavioral healthcare, addiction, and related social services.

We provide a guaranteed cost program, small deductible program options, and expert claim services. Our partner, Negley Associates, has more than 50 years of specialized expertise in the behavioral healthcare industry. Negley is synonymous with behavioral health and is endorsed by two national trade associations. Our strength together enables us to build workers compensation solutions that foster risk management, improve claims experiences, and help drive down clients' overall costs.
